

Afra Mahash Al Hameli - Director of the Strategic Communications Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation (MoFAIC)

Afra Mahash Al Hameli manages the Strategic Communications Department at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, which works to highlight the UAE's regional and international policies. The Strategic Communications Department also serves as a link between the Ministry and local, regional, and international media while overlooking the media efforts of UAE diplomatic missions around the world.

Al Hameli joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation in 2013 in the Policy Planning Department (PPD) at the Ministry's headquarters in Abu Dhabi. She was also appointed to the UAE Mission in the Kingdom of Belgium where she headed the political affairs section and oversaw the European Union file. She was then appointed to head the Strategic Communications Department (SCD) with the rank of advisor at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation.

Al Hameli holds a Bachelor's degree in International Relations from Zayed University and a Master's degree with distinction in Strategic and Security Studies from the National Defense College.
